

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 1, 2019

CONTACT

Abby Crimm
Content Coordinator, WVC
a.crimm@wvc.org

WVC Announces Registration Open for 2020 Annual Conference

The most anticipated educational event of the year in the veterinary community, WVC Annual Conference, will feature a star-studded entertainment lineup and exciting new announcements.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA (August 1, 2019)—WVC, the leading conference in veterinary medicine, officially opened registration for its 92nd Annual Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada. The conference will take place February 16–19, 2020, at the Mandalay Bay Convention Center.

This year’s Annual Conference, themed “Discover Your Why,” is the perfect occasion for all veterinary professionals to discover new advancements in the field and develop cutting-edge skills, while also reigniting their passion and purpose within the veterinary community. With empowerment as a focus, attendees will elevate their careers as they participate in industry seminars, hands-on labs, small-group workshops, and many more educational and networking opportunities.

“Continuing education is about being curious and making the effort to discover new knowledge that improves patient care,” says Steve Gebhart, WVC’s Interim Chief Executive Officer. “We’re excited about the upcoming Annual Conference because it provides the opportunity for everyone in the veterinary community to come together with the passion and the tools to do just that, in a way that’s effective, affordable, and fun.”

Alongside the advanced educational program, innovative exhibit hall, and state-of-the-art facilities at the Oquendo Center, WVC is looking forward to an entertainment line-up full of the most talented, animal-loving artists and celebrities in their respective industries. Ranging from a country music superstar who really, REALLY loves his dog to a comedian and TV personality from a popular morning talk show, participants can expect a fun-filled as well as an educational Annual Conference experience.

Highlighted speakers and topics from among many in the impressive 2020 Annual Conference education program include:

- Sheila Carrera-Justiz, DVM, DACVIM (Neurology): “Brain on Fire!: Inflammatory CNS Diseases”
- Carol Reiner, DVM, PhD, DACVIM (SAIM): “Clinical Approach to Respiratory Disease: A Case-based Discussion”
- Daniel Johnson, DVM, DABVP (Exotic Companion Mammals): “How to Intubate Almost Any Exotic Companion Mammal”
- Lori Bidwell, DVM, DACVAA, CVA: “Managing the Pain of Equine Laminitis: Acute & Chronic Phases”
- Christine Navarre, DVM, MS, DACVIM (LAIM): “Anaplasmosis: Wading through the Confusion”

For more details regarding registration, speakers, sessions, and events visit wvc.org/conference.

About WVC

WVC has a 92-year history of providing practical, high-quality continuing education to veterinary professionals. Based in Las Vegas and operating as a 501(c)(3) non-profit, WVC provides year-round continuing education that includes career building and hands-on learning at the world-class Oquendo Center. WVC also offers Destination CE, providing first-rate education in unique locations around the world, and the WVC Annual Conference, a four-day event that attracts veterinary professionals from every US state and more than 40 countries.